Dos Rios Announces Investment in Chandler Signs

AUSTIN, Texas – The management team of Chandler Signs and capital providers Dos Rios Partners and Quabbin Capital are pleased to announce that they have completed an investment in Chandler.

Founded in 1978 and headquartered in Dallas, Texas, Chandler (www.chandlersigns.com) is a national, vertically integrated provider of exterior on-premise signs for multi-site companies in a wide variety of end markets including retail, restaurant, financial services, pharmacy, entertainment and hospitality. The Company's services include survey, design, engineering, manufacturing, shipping and installation.

Bo Baskin, a co-founding Partner of Dos Rios, stated, "Chandler Signs, under the leadership of Rocky Gray and Gary Stevens, has a 30-year record of superior service and growth. We are privileged to be both an investor in Chandler Signs and a member of the outstanding Chandler Signs family."

Chip Wahle, Partner at Quabbin Capital, added, "We are excited to be part of the next chapter at Chandler and look forward to working closely with Gary Stevens. We thank Rocky Gray for his steadfast commitment to building a customer centric culture and organization at Chandler. We will continue to rely on Rocky's trusted advice and friendship in the years to come."

Former CEO Rocky Gray will remain a shareholder and continue to work with Chandler as a consultant. "We are delighted to have Dos Rios and Quabbin as our capital partners," said Gray. "We have known principals from both of these firms for several years. They are good people. We look forward to many more years of providing solid signage solutions and excellent service to our customers."

CEO Gary Stevens, who has served the Company for the last 34 years, echoed Gray's comments. "This capital partnership further strengthens Chandler's long term commitment and privilege to serve our customers."

Dos Rios led this transaction, joined by co-investment partners Quabbin Capital and Capital Southwest Corporation among others. The transaction was sourced by Financial Sponsor, Quabbin Capital.
